Bring Back Money to Your Bottom-Line

Logistics Plus understands that managing freight claims can be time consuming, inefficient and frustrating for shippers. Documents are hard to manage, communications are difficult, and working with many different carriers and their systems further complicates the process.

Our team will process all freight claims from beginning to end and work as a liaison on behalf of our customer. By offering our freight claims expertise, we take the burden away from our customers when it comes to the frustration and man hours needed to settle each claim.

If you want to achieve efficiency and tight controls for your company, then outsource freight claims management to Logistics Plus. Our hands-on team will work with you to ensure that you understand every step of the claims process. Don't be stuck wondering what you should do about your damaged shipment(s); take action immediately and bring back valuable money to your bottom-line!
