

Yuriy Ostapyak – Global Chief Operating Officer

Yuriy Ostapyak joined Logistics Plus in 2005, starting what is now an 18-year career spanning sales and management, trucking and warehousing, freight forwarding, third-party logistics, and global procurement. Currently overseeing all global and domestic operations, Ostapyak has played a key role in LP's continued success as one of the fastest-growing privately-owned companies in the U.S., with notable awards this year from Inc. 5000, Supply & Demand Chain Executive, Transport Topics, and Great Place to Work® to name a few.

Since his appointment, Ostapyak has pioneered LP's transition from a logistics company to a supply chain management company that not only delivers logistics services but offers highly specialized solutions for top Fortune 50 companies in the realm of IT, IT infrastructure, and business intelligence. He continually produces innovative positive results for customers and business units across the board by identifying and resolving multileveled issues that reduce cost, uncover waste, and drive profitability and effectiveness. He continues to use his expertise in closing complex acquisitions, negotiating terms, financial conditions, and third-party financing to establish global foreign exchange structures and Global Reconciliation/Netting structures worldwide.

Prior to joining LP, Ostapyak earned his B.A. in International Business and Marketing from the Edinboro University of Pennsylvania in 2004 and, subsequently, a master's degree in international economics from the Kyiv National Economic University
