

Supply Chain Challenge? SOLVED!

The World Keeps Changing. When Change Happens, Logistics Plus Delivers.

Working behind the scenes, Logistics Plus, Inc. continues to help businesses address a constantly changing world filled with all-to-frequent supply chain bottlenecks and disruptions.

THE CHALLENGE

The world keeps changing. Pandemics, wars, and droughts. E-commerce, environmental changes, and artificial intelligence. Supply chains continue to face bottlenecks and disruptions. But when Change happens - Logistics Plus® delivers!

THE SOLUTION

Logistics Plus, like a Sherpa, works in the background to help its customers on this complex journey. They say “yes” to any supply chain challenge, from warehousing to transportation, procurement to fulfillment, customs brokerage to global compliance; air, ocean, ground, or rail; regional, national, or international. With passionate people and world-class technology, Logistics Plus is nimble, creative, clever, and resourceful.

THE RESULTS

When the largest manufacturer of locomotives secured a massive order for Indonesia, Logistics Plus managed the importation, customs clearance, and delivery of more than 100 locomotives, each measuring 20.8 x 3.2 x 4.3 meters and weighing 132 metric tons.

When 9/11 happened, Logistics Plus coordinated the first post-attack airfreight charter delivery from Europe to the United States to get critical parts to a global transportation manufacturer.

When the war began in Ukraine, Logistics Plus delivered millions of dollars of aid and support and managed a complex delivery of twenty-two thousand tons of gas pipes to Ukraine, including the first non-grain ocean vessel to one of its key ports.

When the world's biggest co-working startup needed to grow, Logistics Plus helped them open nearly two thousand new offices around the world within four years, including sourcing, imports, warehousing, transportation, and final installation.

When the largest solar farm was constructed in southern California, Logistics Plus managed the importation and delivery of over three million solar panels for a global leader in solar energy and energy storage solutions.

When one of the most successful hedge fund bankers in the world needed to supply its global data centers with IT infrastructure and equipment across 50+ countries, they called Logistics Plus for its combination of global warehousing, trade compliance, inventory management, importer of record

(IOR) capabilities, and white glove installation solutions.

When a Fortune 100 technology company needed to get its consumer electronics products to market, Logistics Plus created regional global control towers with nearly 100 dedicated employees to help them manage their entire supply chain.

When a leading private manufacturer of rockets and spacecraft needed a partner to help analyze its supply chain using business intelligence and visual reporting, they called the experts at Logistics Plus.

If your business has unique supply challenges, Logistics Plus can develop creative solutions for you too.
