

ABOUT THE JOE MOORE AWARD

- Established in 2015, the Joe Moore Award is the only major college football honor that celebrates an entire unit: the offensive line. A committee of voters are made up of all 128 FBS offensive line coaches, media members who played offensive line and a “legacy committee,” including colleagues of Moore and players who were coached by him
- Named after Joe Moore, legendary offensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh and Penn State, who mentored some of the game’s greatest players. Joe Moore began his coaching career at McDowell High School in Erie, Pa from 1963 to 1971.
- Presented annually to the offensive line that best displays grit, toughness, and teamwork — the very values Coach Moore instilled.
- Past winners include elite programs such as Alabama (2015, 2020), Iowa (2016), Notre Dame (2017), Oklahoma (2018), LSU (2019), Michigan (2021, 2022), and Washington (2023), and Army (2024).

THE TROPHY

- Seven feet tall, six feet wide, and 800 pounds of bronze — making it the largest trophy in college football.
- Designed by legendary sports sculptor Jerry McKenna to reflect the grit and strength of the offensive line.
- Requires specialized logistics and project cargo expertise to safely store, transport, and deliver each year.

LOGISTICS PLUS
